FROM OUR SENIOR PASTOR...

Psalm 121:1-2 – I lift up my eyes to the hills. From where does my help come? My help comes from the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

Matthew 6:8 – ...your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

God has promised to be our great provider. Jesus reminds us in Matthew 6:8 that God knows what we need better than we do. In the aftermath of Hurricane Ida, many people in south Louisiana are hurting, disheartened, and afraid. You all did so GREAT during Serve Sunday this past Sunday, now let's pull together again to serve those in Louisiana. One of the many ways God provides is through other people, like you and me. So what can we do to help?

Pray: Pray for the safety of cleanup/electrical crews. Pray for patience and strength as residents wait until they can check on their homes and businesses. Pray for God to draw many people to him through this disaster.

Give: This Sunday, September 5, we will take up a special offering at the end of the service. We will send this money to Mississippi Baptist Disaster Relief. Every cent will go toward helping disaster relief in Louisiana. If you can give a dollar great! If you can give more, great! Give generously and give obediently to what the Lord lays on your heart to give.

Go: We possibly will go to Louisiana later, but as of now, we will remain here and offer prayer and financial support. There will be a time when we will assess if we can go or not, but we are waiting on local authorities and Louisiana/Mississippi Disaster Relief Organizations to give the go ahead.

Blessings,
Bro. David
