Spiritual Growth

Marsha asked me if I could write an Evangel article by using only a few words due to lack of space. I laughed.

Prior to marrying Fran, I warned her that I measure things. In fact, my favorite quote is from an English scientist from the 19th century, Lord Kelvin. "You cannot improve what you do not measure". I recently read an article on "Five Ways To Measure Spiritual Growth" that I highly recommend ( <https://www.allenparr.com/5-ways-measure-spiritual-growth/> ). The article presents five questions to ask yourself. (#1 How Selfless Am I?, #2 How Much Am I Willing To Sacrifice?, #3 How Much Am I Willing To Serve?, #4 How Much Am I Willing To Submit?, and #5 How Much Am I Willing To Suffer?).

The article is very much worth reading.
