FROM CHAD CASEY...

Happy New Year
What does that mean? It means many things to several different people. For a long time to me it meant starting over and looking only to the future. I believe that to be true I also believe that looking back has some significance too.

Let's start by looking to the future. Isaiah 9:6 NIV says "For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Isaiah told of the future. Future is great because no one knows what happens until it happens. But when it happens it becomes the present. We still must look toward the miracles and signs that God provides us every day. Faith leads to a happy future.

The past also gives us great insight and proof that God is real. God is part of us, listens to us, interacts with us, and loves us. After he interacts with us they become precious memories. We can then tell others how He has affected us and come into our lives.

I know I personally struggle with temptations and I have many times made New Year's resolutions. I pray this year that I will look back at the past. This year my prayer is that I will do it differently and create a new chapter instead of repeating the same.
