FROM THE DIRECTOR OF CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES....

I've noticed I'm not the best at things when I'm distract-ed. Do you ever get distracted? For me, it's easy to get side-tracked as I walk throughout the day’s to-do's. I'm a list maker too, and I check my list through the day because I know how the day can easily be over before you got any-thing accomplished.....at least as far as my list goes. For example, the letter I'm writing now was supposed to be completed yesterday, but my mind and time was high-jacked. Then that leads to stress, which for me can be para-lyzing, and then you really don't get things done.

I'm aware there is an instigator in these daily situations when you are trying to do the Lord's work. In 2 Corinthians 4:4 he's referred to as the "god of this world"....that's right, Satan. Jesus even called him the "ruler of this world" in John 14:30 and again the "prince of this world".

He uses things of this world and presumably innocent God loving people to work through as a way of getting to you. He's crafty...real crafty!

I'm not the best wife, the best mother nor the best chil-dren's director when I'm distracted. And guess what? He knows that! We cannot let him defeat us or highjack our thoughts. Be aware Satan is real and it's all part of his plan. But so is God and He has already defeated Satan when He died on the cross. The battle has been won. So let's live like it! I am preaching to the choir here. I have to remind myself of this promise daily. When I'm not distracted I'm really good at what I do and always give it 150%. I choose to live for JESUS whatever He calls me to do and I ask Him to remove distractions so I can also be the best follower of Christ.

With Love, Dana
