FROM OUR SENIOR PASTOR...

Hayden Planetarium in New York City ran an advertisement in New York newspapers inviting those who would like to make the first journey to another planet to submit an application. Within a matter of days, over 18,000 people applied. These applications were then given to a panel of psychologists, who upon reviewing them concluded that the vast majority of those who had applied wanted to start a new life on another planet because they were so discouraged by life on this one (Chuck Swindoll).

Many of us can sympathize with this sentiment, can't we? It seems as though our world is spinning chaotically out of control and our culture is not only not alarmed, but many want it to spin faster and faster. Sometimes, we would rather long for a different world tomorrow than to be thankful for the one we have today.

In Psalm 107, verses 1 and 8, the psalmist writes, "Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever!...Let them [God's people] thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of man! (ESV)"

Can you imagine how different our lives would be and how it would positively affect those around us if we lived consistently thankful lives? How might our lives be different if we were looking for reasons to thank God for who He is, what He has done, and what is doing in our lives right now? How might our neighbors and co-workers lives be different if they heard the song of thanksgiving on our lips?
